In accordance with the Ministry of Education's Anti-Corruption and anti-bribery Policies (No Gift Policy) announcement, on the occasion of Thailand's International Anti-Corruption Day, under the concept "Ministry of Education Zero Tolerance" (MOE ZERO Tolerance) of the fiscal year 2024, on 9th December 2023. To raise awareness, stimulate the sense of non-acceptance and zero tolerance to corruption by the officers of Ministry of Education, and to uphold the good image of Ministry of Education. In order to comply with the intention, Klongtomratrangsang School has taken the following actions:

1. Strictly comply with all steps of the law, rules and regulations and encourage school personnel to perform their duties as specified law.
2. Instill and create awareness about value in resisting corruption, know how to distinguish between personal and public benefits, instill moral awareness to prevent corruption in the organization, including having a strong and effective internal balance which will enable Klongtomratrangsang School personnel to develop a sustainable culture of resisting corruption.
3. Do not accept and tolerate corruption that leads to social punishment which will cause personnel in the Secondary Educational Service Area Office, Trane-Krabi and educational institutions under its supervision to desist from committing corruption.
4. Commit to working with fairness, honesty, speed and efficiency.
5. Aim to manage the school based on the principle of good governance and jointly create a culture of morality in the organization and manage the budget with transparency and value for maximum benefit to the government and be ready to show responsibility if the operation of Klongtomratrangsang School affects and causes damage to society as a whole. Therefore, we would like to announce that we will not accept gifts of any kind on any festivals or occasions. In stead, we would like to express our good will to each other by ending well wishes on social media or doing volunteer works instead of giving. This announcement is here by made for all to know and adhere to.
